Enjoy family movie night at HBBC

By Starr Munro
 Riverbend News

Hatch Bend Baptist Church (HBBC), located in Branford, is hosting a free movie night on Sunday, Dec. 6th, at 6 p.m. If weather permits, it will be a chance to sit down in lawn chairs outside or on blankets and enjoy "The Grinch," the newest film adaptation of Dr. Seuss' classic children's book, "How The Grinch Stole Christmas." Come take part in this wholesome church event where families can come together and enjoy a night of relaxation with a fun movie. If it rains, the outdoor movie night will become an indoor movie night, but nothing else will change. Refreshments will be provided in the form of popcorn and hot chocolate and there will be door prizes given away, as well. Hatch Bend Baptist Church is located at 3029 SE CR 500, in Branford. Please call (386) 935-0943 for more information or email hatchbendbaptist@hotmail.com.

Alms Ministry, Inc. of Fort White paired up with Branford Christian Services of Suwannee County, Inc. to sponsor a food distribution on Thursday, Nov. 19. at 1 p.m. the two groups met at the Branford United Methodist Church, located on the corner of Northwest Henry Avenue and Northwest Express Street in Branford, to provide over 100 families with a food box containing meat and non-perishables.

During the event, cars pulled up and had boxes of food loaded into their trunks, making for smooth and quick distribution to those in need. "It is a blessing for us to be a blessing to the families in our community and the surrounding area," Jennifer Alms, the founder of Alms Ministry, Inc., said.

Alms Ministry, Inc. and Branford Christian Services of Suwannee County, Inc. sponsor their food distribution every other Thursday at the Branford United Methodist Church at 1 p.m. For more information, please contact Jennifer Alms at (352) 214-2936.
